Details:

The Montgomery County Commission on Children and Youth is a group of 27 committed volunteers that advises the County Executive, County Council, Department of Health and Human Services, and the Board of Education on the development of coordinated community and government policies, programs and services that support children, youth and families.

The award is named in memory of Nancy Dworkin, past chairperson of the Commission, who died in 1987. Nancy was the Director of the Center for Unique Learners, a Rockville school for children with learning disabilities. Her upbeat teaching philosophy focused on "teaching to strength" and encouraging all students to develop skills and reach their own potential. This philosophy echoes our purposes in establishing this Awards Program - encouraging us all to reach our own potential for service to others.
